

Two-Way Interactive Television Classes

Student Policy

(One per family)

Two-way interactive television provides a method for districts to provide low-incidence courses and advanced programming that normally might not be offered to students in this school. Because of this uniqueness of two-way interactive television, certain standards of performance and behavior must be maintained by students enrolling in these courses. This policy statement is intended to make both the student and parents aware of the standards of students enrolling in such courses.

As a student taking a two-way interactive course, I am aware that:

1. Standards are expected of me, as a student insubordination of any kind will not be tolerated. Insubordination has been defined as anything that interferes with teaching or learning in the classroom.
2. Inappropriate language or gestures will not be tolerated.
3. Because of technology, anything I do in the classroom can be taped.
4. Certain classroom procedures must be followed:
  - a. Students must sit within camera view at all times.
  - b. Students must not mishandle the equipment in the classroom.
  - c. Students must follow all other rules as specified by the teacher.

The following procedures will be followed for students who cannot follow the above rules:

First offense: The student will be given a verbal warning and the parents will be notified by the classroom teacher of the infraction. The Principal will also be notified.

Second offense: Student will be removed from the class.

SEVERE CONDUCT: Student will be removed from the class, possibly on a permanent basis.
